Social and Personal

Miss Kathleen Baxter Richardson has issued invitations for a tea to be given at her home, 1524 Grove Avenue, on Thursday afternoon, November 6, from 3 to 6 o'clock. The affair is in honor of Miss Mollie Floyd Miller, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Miller, Jr., in whose honor a number of charming affairs have been planned this season.

Distinguished Visitors Entertained. Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson entertained at a small tea yesterday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock in honor of Lady Ramsey and Miss Ramsey, who are with Sir William Mitchell Ramsay, of Aberdeen University, Scotland, at the Union Theological Seminary. Mrs. Johnson and her honor guests, assisted by Mrs. Theron H. Rice, received in the music-room, which was arranged with white chrysanthemums. Yellow chrysanthemums were used in the hall and library. The tea table in the dining-room was set with a lovely basket of autumn roses.

At the Woman's Club. The Union Seminary and Richmond people are very much interested in the visit of Sir William Ramsay to deliver the Sprunt course of lectures at the seminary. The Woman's Club will tender the distinguished scientist and Lady Ramsey a reception at the club on Monday afternoon, November 3, at 4:30 o'clock, at which time Lady Ramsey will give a travel talk. Sir William will also make a short talk on that occasion. Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson is chairman.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 6, "The Reef" and "Custom of the Country" by Edith Wharton, will be reviewed by Mrs. L. B. Dashiell. These will be the first books of the season to be discussed at the Literary Round table, of which Mrs. Archer Jones is chairman, and the afternoon promises to be a very interesting one.

Invitations Out. Cards have been received in Richmond for the marriage of Miss Hattie Conant Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Benjamin Powers and Thomas Mann Arrington, Jr. The wedding will be celebrated on the evening of Wednesday, November 6, at 5 o'clock, and the ceremony will take place in the Wingate Memorial Chapel, at Wake Forest, N. C.

Mrs. Bosher's Book. An interesting topic for discussion around the tea tables these fall afternoons and evenings is "The House of Happiness," Mrs. Kate Langley Bosher's new book, recently brought out by Harpers. Mrs. Bosher has just returned from New York City, where she went to attend a conference of the National Association of Women's Clubs.

At the Woman's Club. A most interesting incident attending the annual meeting of the Huguenot Mission in Richmond, which took place Wednesday, was the presentation of the "Huguenot Cross" to Mrs. J. Burbridge Haliburton, president of the Richmond branch of this mission. The cross was brought from France last summer by Monsieur D'Aubigny, son of the celebrated historian of the Huguenots, and himself one of the distinguished workers in the great Protestant struggle now in progress in France. This movement is not in any way political, but is a religious movement to light the progress of infidelity and agnosticism now rampant in France. Monsieur D'Aubigny brought the cross hoping to present it to Mrs. Haliburton, but owing to her absence from Richmond, he conferred it to her, stating that it was a memorial to the Huguenot Mission Society of France emphasizing their gratitude for her splendid work in this cause.

It is a decoration of most sacred and unique history. During that period of the seventeenth century, when the Huguenots were slaughtered wholesale, or murdered individually, on account of their Protestant faith, this cross was the badge of the Huguenot of the forest, or recess of mountains, for their secret services, always in peril of discovery and death, the faithful women each wore the emblem that is the badge of the Huguenot today. It is a beautiful in design—a golden cross surrounded by a crown and a diamond light, pendant below.

Miss Alice Marcuse will entertain Sunday night for the bridal party of the Wallenstein-Goldstein wedding. The Misses Sickel, of Philadelphia, who arrived in Richmond for the marriage, and will be the guests of Miss Marcuse for some time. Miss Bertha Haley, of Baltimore, will be in Richmond to attend the wedding.

Another pretty affair given for the bridal party of the Wallenstein-Goldstein wedding, which will take place to-morrow at the Jefferson Hotel.

For Fine Camp. Illustrated Songs and Costumes Recital" will be given at the Pine Camp, which the Ginter Park Women's Club present November 7, in the local Assembly Hall. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dashiell, of the stage, entertainment, which promises to be a very brilliant affair, and other members of the Pine Camp will be in attendance.

At the Woman's Club. The various booths. Following the stage entertainment, the floor will be cleared for dancing. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

Society is greatly interested in the excursion that the Peterkin Guild of St. James Church will run to-morrow to Charlottesville to attend the Virginia Middle School football game, and a large and enthusiastic crowd will be in attendance.

Among those from Norfolk who expect to go are: Mr. and Mrs. William E. White, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred P. Thon, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Julius Willcox, Messrs. Thomas H. Wilcox, Jr., Wiley Grady, Robert B. Tunstall, Richard L. Dobbie, Claude Bain, Paul Kear, William Maupin, R. E. Lee Taylor, John Gordon, Charles Grant, Herbert Nash, Richard Tunstall, Charles Tunstall, Granville Curry, Morton Prentiss, Ralph Jones, H. Tyler Smith, H. W. Davis, W. H. White, Charles F. McIntosh, Moran Barry, James Barry, Garrett Walters, James Walters, Sheriff Lawler, Charles Hunter, Baldwin Myers, R. D. Cooke, Jr., Samuel H. Hodges, Dr. P. V. Williamson, Dr. G. Faulkner, Dr. Harry Wall, Dr. Burnley Laikner, Dr. Herbert Old, Dr. Brand Williams.

Miss Page Pelham Howlett left town Wednesday for Birmingham, Ala., where she is to be maid of honor at the Cottonville-Middleton marriage, which takes place on November 8. The wedding is one of the society events of the fall season in Birmingham, and will be a brilliant affair in every detail. A great deal of hand-carrying is being done for the bride's party, prior to the wedding ceremony next Wednesday.

Concerning Mr. Straus. A number of interest to Richmond people that Mitteldorfer, formerly of this city, but now of New York, has recently had two paintings accepted at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts annual exhibition of water colors. They are "Pauvre," an old Spaniard, and "The Mountains," a landscape of the quiet stream, the valley and the distant blue mountains.

Affairs of Yesterday. The Presidents' Club gave a delightful dance last evening at the Jefferson Club, some fifty couples being present. It was a Halloween dance, and the decorations were all in keeping with the observance of that feast, autumn leaves, fall flowers and unique arrangements of fruits and flowers being used everywhere.

Mrs. Albert Genet Kirland gave a card party at her home on Grove Avenue yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Kirland entertained in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Gardiner Plunney, of Charleston, W. Va., formerly Miss Matilda Jones, of this city.

Mrs. John Winston entertained at a luncheon at her home on the Hermitage Road on Wednesday. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Preston Noland, and the table was decorated with a silver vase of sunset roses.

Organ Recital. At 8:30 this evening in the First Presbyterian Church, Ben J. Potter will give his arawell recital. Professor Potter will be assisted by Joseph Whittemore, organist of the First Baptist Church and the Jewish Synagogue, and L. B. Slaughter, baritone.

In New York. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Michaels, of Richmond, are in New York for a week and are at the Hotel Astor, coming there from Canada, where they have been for the past three weeks for their honeymoon. From New York Mr. and Mrs. Michaels will return to their home in this city.

Willis-Barber. At Trinity rectory, in Fredericksburg, a beautiful home wedding was quietly solemnized Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock when Miss Beryl Alice Hayes took the bride of Mason Hayes Willis.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Barber, father of the bride, in front of an embankment of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, with which the rectory was decorated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, George W. Brown, of Pittsburgh, Pa., wore a white lace gown with a train of the valley and maiden-hair ferns.

After the ceremony, which was attended by only the immediate relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Willis left for an extended Northern tour and will make their home on Upper Princess Anne Street, after November 29.

The bride has a great many friends here, where she has frequently visited. To visit Mrs. Love. Miss Dixie Selden, of Cincinnati, sails on November 1 from Rotterdam for the Atlantic, and the Holland-American Line for New York after a four-month stay in Europe. She will visit Mrs. Samuel B. Love, at the Chestfield here, on route to her home.

Big Barn Dance. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Swartz gave their annual barn dance last evening in the loft of the barn at their home in Barton Heights, with about 175 guests present. Decorations were elaborately arranged. Carrots, pumpkins, leaves, fall flowers, plant pumpkins and jack-o'-lanterns being used everywhere. The guests came in costume and the affair was most unique and interesting.

Gardner-Robinson. A pretty wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock at 703 East Leigh Street, when Miss Sarah Robinson, sister of John Henry Robinson, became the bride of John Gardner, of this city. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and ferns, with pink and white flowers. Miss Ruby Hill, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music. Rev. Mr. Jones officiated and the ceremony was entered with the groom and a tailor suit of blue, with a becoming tail to match, and a corsage bouquet of white and pink flowers. The bride followed the groom in a white gown, and the ceremony was a reception was given. The rooms were decorated in festoons of green and white. Lanterns were suspended from the ceiling, and the affair was most unique and interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will be at home after November 10, at 621 North Sixth Street.

Halloween Festival. An interesting affair of this evening will be a Halloween festival to be given by the Home Mission Society in the lecture-room of the Park Place Methodist Church at 5 o'clock. An orchestra, composed of Misses Agnes Coward, Rita Baker, Martha Katharine and Emma Cosby, and little Gloria Stein, will render a delightful program. Decorations will be in keeping with the Halloween idea and supper will be served by witches.

Miss Mary Kain has returned to Richmond, after spending a week with friends in Norfolk.

Miss Nannie Trant of Virginia Beach, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sinton, on West Franklin Street.

Mrs. Charles P. Lee and Miss Katherine Lee have gone to Lynchburg to attend the Saunders-Quinn wedding next week.

Mrs. Daisy Patterson of this city, is a guest of Mrs. R. C. L. Moncreux in Newport News.

Mrs. Thomas Armistead has taken an apartment in Richmond for the winter, after spending their summer months at Bon Air.
